SELFLESS WORK PAVES THE PATH TO SALVATION: Ratan Tata said, "I don't believe in work-life balance. I believe in work-life integration. Make your work and life meaningful and fulfilling, and they will complement each other." Present circumstances have made life far more competitive, demanding and stressful, resulting in a spike in lifestyle diseases like diabetes and hypertension. The proverbial work-life balance is no longer relevant.

What is work? Is it an activity that one enjoys? Is it a necessity to survive? Or is it some activity to keep the mind busy and engaged?

Indic scriptures and philosophy regard work as a duty to be performed without expectation. The Bhagavad Gita says, 'Karmanye Vadhikaraste, Ma phaleshu kadachana' — you have the right to perform actions, but you are not entitled to their fruits. That seems to be utopian. Building and running industries with a humane value system is certainly the need of the hour. Improving work ethic and creating environments that respect and value every employee will go a long way in alleviating stress and ailments of the serving class, who form the backbone of society. One can create wealth by adopting a work ethic and not abandoning it. A work ethic that respects human values, breeds modesty and humility and transforms each member of the team into a karm yogi, an individual who works with sincerity, dedication and a deep respect for what he does. Man gets headspin bulge after years of break-dancing

New York: A break-dancer who had been practicing head-spinning for about 19 years developed a protuberant and tender bulge on top of his head.

According to a recently published medical case study, head-spinning as part of break-dancing training can cause hairless bumps on practitioners' heads. In the recently documented case, the patient, a man in his 30s who had been incorporating head-spinning as part of his break-dancing training for the last 19 years, reported spinning on his head for about two to seven minutes, about five times a week. He noticed the bump a while back but told doctors that it had become larger and tender to the touch in the last five years.

Upon examining, doctors determined that a soft mass was sandwiched between the skin and the skull, but also that the skin above the mass and the bone beneath it were considerably thicker and decided to surgically remove the mass and shave the man's scalp back to the level of the tissue around it.

Baker's miniature aristocratic dress cakes

Hanoi: Nguyen Vu Hoang Anh, one of Vietnam's most talented and creative cake artists, has become known for his cakes shaped as miniature aristocratic dresses, complete with tiny creases and folds.

Nguyen Vu Hoang Anh is known as one of the best cake artists in Vietnam, but while his stunningly realistic flowers and flawless tiered cakes have always been impressive, it was his signature aristocratic dress cakes that earned him attention and praise on social media. Made using a layered sponge cake base held together with butter-cream and chocolate, the insanely detailed cakes are covered with a layer of coloured fondant hand-moulded into the shape of European-style aristocratic dresses inspired by the Baroque era.

'Multi-crore scam at Kasaba Primary Agricultural Credit Co-op. Society'

MLA Darshan Puttannaiah reveals startling information about the irregularities

Pandavapura, Oct. 16- Embezzlement of crores of rupees has been unearthed at Kasaba Primary Agricultural Credit Co-operative Society Ltd. in the town, leaving the farmers and shareholders in a fix.

MLA Darshan Puttannaiah, who visited the bank on the receipt of information over large scale irregularities on Tuesday, appealed to the farmers and shareholders not to panic, as steps have been taken to collect amount that has been misused.

Darshan Puttannaiah said, following the complaints over misusing the valuables pledged for loan by the shareholders, and pigmy and deposit amount, the steps were taken to verify the records. It came to light that, over Rs. 4 crore has been misused at the Society and steps have been taken to collect back the same.

Besides, the required information has been sought from the Assistant Registrar of Cooperation Department, as it is learnt that, the valuables of shareholders that were kept in the locker of DCC Bank in the town were removed and pledged at a private finance firm. The private finance firms lend more amount towards the valuables kept as collateral. Hence the perpetrators had transferred the valuables to the private finance firm and have even misused the ill-gotten money gained from the same.

There were complaints about financial mismanagement at various Societies in the taluk, he said.

CID probe into site scam

Following the State Government's order, Criminal Investigation Department (CID) has launched a probe into the allegations of irregularities in the allotment of sites in the jurisdiction of Pandavapura Town Municipal Council (TMC).

Darshan Puttannaiah said, the CID is collecting primary information related to the scam, as over 2,500 sites have been allotted so far under various schemes of the Government since 1976, with the intent of providing own roof for the poor by the TMC and also under Ashraya Housing Committee.

It is alleged that, most of the sites were usurped by influential persons in a fraudulent manner, while in some cases, multiple title deeds have been issued to the same site, cheating the beneficiaries. Hence a memorandum was submitted to the Govt. to order for a probe into the suspected irregularities, he added.

Online trading: Man cheated of Rs. 30.85 lakh

Mysuru, Oct. 16 (SBD&KS)- Online fraudsters have cheated a man to the tune of Rs. 30.85 lakh on the pretext of online trading.

The man who lost his money is Roopesh (name changed), a resident of Yadavagiri in city.

Roopesh, who saw an advertisement pertaining to online trading of Facebook, clicked on the advertisement following which his mobile number was added to a WhatsApp group.

Later, an online link was sent to him and he was asked to install the App. After downloading the App and installing it, Roopesh provided Know Your Customer (KYC) information, following which an account in his name was activated.

Roopesh began to receive information about the share market, stocks and shares that can be traded and bought. Also, many people in the WhatsApp group had also posted screenshots about the amount they had invested and the profits they had received.

In his complaint, Roopesh has stated that he too invested money and had earned profits besides stating that he had withdrawn Rs. 1 lakh profit from his trading account.

He later stated that, he invested a total of Rs. 30.85 lakh in phases and later received a message that he had earned Rs. 2 crore profit. But when he tried to withdraw the money, he was asked to remit 15 percent of the profit amount as brokerage but later his account became dead.

Rs. 97 crore online fraud

Private Bank Manager among eight arrested

Bengaluru, Oct. 16 (Agencies)- The Bengaluru CEN Police have arrested eight people, including a Manager of a private bank for allegedly siphoning off money from several bank accounts, with transactions worth Rs. 97 crore across the country.

The arrested have been identified as private bank Manager Kishore Sahu, Sales Manager Manohar, Sales Executives Karthik and Rakesh; mule account holders Lakshmekanth, Raghu Raj, Kengegowda and Mala.

Police Commissioner B. Dayananda on Tuesday said that they are looking for three more accused.

According to a Police Officer, the victim, a Yelahanka resident filed a Police complaint at the CEN Police Station on July 1, claiming that he was defrauded of Rs. 1.5 crore.

The victim received a message on WhatsApp in March and was added to a trading training group. He was then added to a VIP trading account and was promised 10 times the profit on his investment.

The victim stated that he had initially invested Rs. 50,000 and within a couple of days, the amount appeared to have doubled in his VIP trading account. Hoping to make a large profit, he again deposited Rs. 1.5 crore in phases between March and June of this year.

The victim's account showed that he had earned Rs. 28 crore, but when he tried to withdraw the money, he was asked to pay a Rs. 75 lakh fee for server management. Sensing something suspicious, the victim filed a complaint with CEN Police.

When the Police began their investigation, they found the money was transferred to two current accounts registered with the Nagarabhavi branch of a private bank and the accounts belonged to people residing in Chikkamagalur. Upon questioning, Bank Manager Sahu did not provide any business documents or residential proof.

Later, it was found that four more such bank accounts existed in the same bank and the total transactions on these four bank accounts were worth about Rs. 97 crore.

The Police took custody of Sahu and other bank employees. Upon interrogation, they uncovered a network of corruption.

VOICE OF THE READER

Make Sayyaji Rao Road safer for motorists

Sir,

During the Dasara period, the divider on Sayyaji Rao Road is temporarily removed to facilitate the smooth passage of the procession. I request the City Police Commissioner to reconsider reinstating the divider between Ayurveda College Circle and the Dhanvantri Road (Bata Showroom) junction.

We are witnessing frequent traffic violations, especially from two-wheelers and autos, entering the one-way road from Ayurveda Circle to Dhanvantri Road. This poses significant traffic hazards to those entering from Dhanvantri Road to Sayyaji Rao Road.

Additionally, the concrete dividers in this area are causing difficulties for four-wheelers parked on Sayyaji Rao Road. The road becomes narrow, making it challenging to take out parked vehicles due to the continuous flow of traffic on both sides.

In the light of these issues, I urge the authorities to rethink and reconsider the placement of the divider in front of K.R. Hospital and Cauvery Emporium on Sayyaji Rao Road, in the interest of public safety and convenience.

Coffee Dasara in Madikeri

Growers made aware of changes in cultivation, facilities, finance

Madikeri, Oct. 16 (PS&BCT)- The first-ever 'Coffee Dasara' launched at Gandhi Maidan as part of the recently held Madikeri Dasara was a ground-breaking initiative to elevate the coffee industry and engage the farming community. This event raised awareness about the transformative changes in coffee cultivation and the various facilities available to growers.

Conceptualised by Dr. Manthar Gowda, MLA from Madikeri Constituency, the two-day event on Oct. 7 and 8 featured a diverse array of coffee enterprises and 34 departmental stalls, all dedicated to equipping growers in the district with essential information and resources.

Numerous organisations also participated, setting up stalls to offer supplementary materials and insights related to various agricultural products, including coffee, thereby fostering a spirit of collaboration and innovation in the agricultural sector.

Inaugurating the Coffee Dasara, Agriculture Minister Cheluvarayaswamy affirmed the Government's commitment to standing by farmers to ensure the comprehensive development of all agricultural activities, particularly coffee cultivation, which serves as the backbone of Kodagu's economy.

He noted that coffee cultivation does not fall under the purview of the Agriculture Department or the State Government. In various regions of the State, paddy cultivation is widespread, supported by reservoirs. However, water availability often decreases as crops mature, leading to difficulties for farmers, he said.

"To tackle this issue, the State Government has decided to create farm ponds (krishi honda) in command areas, which will aid farmers during water shortage. The Government plans to grant permission for the construction of 250 farm ponds in Kodagu district," he assured.

Escaping modernisation

As the chief guest, Minister for Health and Family Welfare, Dinesh Gundu Rao, stressed that no region can escape the wave of modernisation. He underscored the need for balanced development while maintaining cultural roots.

Emphasising the promotion of coffee cultivation and industry, he advocated for the establishment of local coffee brands and raising awareness about domestic coffee consumption.

Virajpet MLA Ajjikuttira S. Ponnanna praised the focus on coffee cultivation during the Madikeri Dasara celebrations, expressing hope that importance of coffee would continue to be emphasised in future Dasara festivals, spreading its significance throughout State.

MLA Dr. Manthar Gowda highlighted the numerous challenges faced by coffee growers and called for support, urging Ministers not to permit the conversion of paddy fields into non-agricultural land to preserve Kodagu's agricultural heritage.

South Indian filter coffee

Coffee Board Chairman Dinesh Devabrinda announced a plan 'from farm to market,' aimed at doubling coffee production over the next decade while maintaining quality.

He noted that the Government of India recognises the significance of coffee and has allocated Rs. 307 crore to the Coffee Board for the development of the coffee industry. Of this, Rs. 19 crore will be provided to coffee growers in Kodagu through various assistance schemes.

Currently, the average coffee consumption per Indian is 30 cups. If this figure can be increased to at least 60 cups, internal coffee consumption could rise from 2,50,000 tonnes to 3,50,000 tonnes, significantly benefiting farmers.

He emphasised that South Indian filter coffee is among the best globally, and the Coffee Board is actively working on initiatives to promote this filter coffee on a worldwide scale.

Kodagu Deputy Commissioner Venkata Raja, Assistant Commissioner Vinayak Narwade, former MLC Veena Achaiah, Secretary of Karnataka Planters' Association K. Rajiv Ganapathy, President of the Coorg Planters' Association Nanda Belliappa, General Secretary of the Women's Coffee Awareness Society Anita Nanda, Coffee Board Member Taluru Kishore Kumar, Coffee Board member, Kodagu Congress President Dharmaraj Uthappa, former President Vinod Shivappa, General Secretary of the Madikeri Dasara Committee B.Y. Rajesh Yellappa and others were present.

Rathotsava atop Chamundi Hill draws huge crowd

Mysuru, Oct. 16 (MTY&BS)- Thousands of devotees witnessed Rathotsava of Goddess Chamundeshwari at Chamundi Hill, organised as part of Dasara festival celebrated by Wadiyars, the erstwhile royal family of Mysore, this morning.

As per the tradition, Utsava Murti of the Goddess was brought out from the temple during the auspicious Dhanur Lagna that occurred between 9.15 am and 9.45 am, to perform the traditional puja.

Later, with the help of a crane provided by Railway Department, the Utsava Murti of the presiding deity was installed on the ratha (car / chariot) pulled by a huge rope by the devotees.

As a safety measure, the net was drawn around the Utsava Murti, that was accompanied by the Priests and the Police.

Wadiyars absent

In the absence of the members of erstwhile royal family, who are restrained from partaking in any auspicious events, due to the custom in practice following the birth of a baby to Trishikha Kumari Wadiyar, wife of titular head of the family Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar, the Chief Priest of Chamundeshwari Temple Shashishekar Dixit performed puja in the name of Wadiyars, with all the royal coat of arms and rendition of Police Band.

The chariot was later taken around the temple, amid the raising of slogans by the devotees hailing the Goddess.

The fire was shot using the mini cannons, by the members of Firangi Dal, who regularly perform the similar duty to offer 21-gun salute to the Goddess on Jumboo Savari day, as a mark of respect to the Goddess.

Rush of devotees

Devotees had come from all over to the Hill were seen praying for the fulfilment of their wishes. Those unable to visit the temple amid the huge crowd, prayed to the Goddess en route of the procession.

Theppotsava

Theppotsava (Coracle Festival) is scheduled to be held tomorrow (Oct. 17) at Devi Kere atop the hill, that officially marks the culmination of celebration associated with the Dasara festival, especially by the royal family.

MLA G.T. Devegowda, his wife Lalitha, son and Hunsur MLA G.D. Harish Gowda, Sri Chamundeshwari Kshetra Development Authority Secretary M.J. Roopa were present.

MUDA Chairman resigns

The MUDA scam has caused significant challenges for CM sending a negative message to the public, forcing the Government to consider comprehensive reforms within MUDA. Marigowda had informed the CM of his decision to resign and the CM directed him to meet the Urban Development Secretary.

The State Government faced embarrassment due to allegations of irregularities in the land allotment process in MUDA, especially under the 50:50 ratio, prompting the CM to instruct Marigowda to step down.

Allegations of financial irregularities amounting to thousands of crores of rupees are surfacing, linked to the allotment of approximately 4,000 to 5,000 sites in the controversial 50:50 ratio. The One-man Commission, headed by retired High Court Justice P.N. Desai is investigating these claims. Additionally, the Mysuru Lokayukta Police are probing the allotment of 14 sites in the Vijayanagar Third and Fourth Stages to B.M. Parvathi, the wife of CM Siddaramaiah, in lieu of her 3.16-acre land in Kesare.

A fortnight old development

Although Marigowda was ready to resign a fortnight ago, the escalating controversy led to accusations from Opposition parties and even some members of his own Congress party. Some senior Ministers advised Marigowda to delay his resignation until Dasara, sources said.

Opposition leaders have intensified their calls for the resignation of Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and Urban Development Minister Byrathi Suresh.

Yesterday morning, after holding separate meetings in Bengaluru, Siddaramaiah and Byrathi Suresh reportedly directed Marigowda to resign, sources added.

'Tried to clean up the rot in MUDA'

Mysuru, Oct. 16 (RK&BCT)- K. Marigowda, who resigned as Chairman of the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) this morning, has reportedly told his friends and close associates that he had no involvement in the MUDA scam and that his actions were aimed at addressing the irregularities within the organisation.

"I got into trouble because, as Chairman, I wrote letters to then MUDA Commissioner G.T. Dinesh Kumar, asking him to stop MUDA's losses caused by the arbitrary approval of sites in a 50:50 ratio, which was done without the knowledge of either the MUDA Chairman or the Board. If I hadn't taken that step, this scam would never have come to light, and the flow of illegal money would have continued," Marigowda confided to his inner circle.

He explained that his attempts to protect MUDA's assets backfired: "I was penalised for trying to safeguard MUDA's interests because I knew that if things escalated, as the head of the organisation, I too would be held accountable," Marigowda said.

He expressed disappointment that even members of his own party had pressured Chief Minister Siddaramaiah to demand his resignation during a recent encounter at Mysore Airport. "This has deeply hurt me. But I take solace in the fact that I worked with integrity during my brief tenure," he shared with his friends.

Marigowda emphasised his unwavering trust in Siddaramaiah: "I have always trusted Siddaramaiah, and my faith in him remains unshaken. After he expressed doubts about my handling of MUDA affairs, I felt I no longer wanted this position, conveying his deep sense of personal pain," he said

Kodagu set for sacred Cauvery Theerthodbhava tomorrow

Madikeri, Oct. 16 (PS&BCT)- The countdown has begun for the sacred Theerthodbhava at Talacauvery, the origin of the river Cauvery, scheduled for tomorrow (Oct. 17) at 7.40 am.

This revered event marks the moment when the river Cauvery springs forth from the Brahmakundike. Considered especially auspicious due to its early morning occurrence, this year's Theerthodbhava is expected to draw a larger crowd of devotees from both Karnataka and Tamil Nadu.

The Kodagu District Administration has made extensive preparations, with floral decorations underway at Bhagamandala and Talacauvery. Clean-up efforts, electric lighting, sound systems and parking facilities have been meticulously arranged to accommodate the influx of visitors.

Since Sept. 26, the Bhagandeshwara Temple has been leading various rituals, with additional ceremonies held on Oct. 4 and 14. These rituals form part of the spiritual lead-up to Theerthodbhava.

From this afternoon, the Police will enforce tight security measures. The Kodagu Ekikarana Ranga, in collaboration with the temple administration, has arranged for snacks and meals to be provided to lakhs of devotees throughout October. Continuous Annasantharpana ceremonies are also being conducted at Bhagamandala by temple management committee.

Virajpet MLA A.S. Ponnanna is scheduled to visit today to review the preparations, while district officials and temple executive officer Chandrashekhar have overseen the overall festival arrangements. A team of priests is prepared to lead the religious rituals at both Talacauvery and Bhagamandala.

In a key initiative this year, the temple authorities are emphasising environmental conservation. A strict ban on plastic use has been implemented, urging devotees to avoid carrying plastic containers for collecting sacred water. Eco-friendly alternatives have been encouraged to preserve the sanctity of the environment.

KSRTC is also facilitating transportation for devotees by deploying additional buses from various parts of Kodagu, ensuring easy access to Talacauvery.

Go vegan, shun non-vegetarian diet: Artistic campaign by PETA in city

Mysuru, Oct. 16 (GA&BS)- To promote the practice of vegetarian food, People For Ethical Treatment of Animals (PETA) had organised an innovative campaign through artistic depiction in city yesterday.

The campaign, organised as part of World Food Day, drew appreciation of the public. A woman dressed as blood stained food on a plate with a knife and fork kept beside, depicted the cruelty associated with the killing of animals for non-veg diet, forming the artistic depiction, on the footpath in front of the Town Hall.

In his address, PETA India Campaign Co-ordinator Atharva Deshmukh appealed to the people to adopt vegetarian life style and shun the practice of non-vegetarian food.

"It is better to consume vegetarian food rather than consuming the meat of the animal subjected to torture and unwilling to die," he said.

According to National Family Health Survey conducted between 2019 and 2021, majority of the chunk of 81 percent of the population in the age group of 15 to 49 years in the State consume meat. If a person switches over to vegetarian food, every individual will be saving the life of 200 animals in a year. Such drastic changes are essential across the globe as decided by United Nations (UN), said Atharva Deshmukh.

By-polls to 3 Assembly seats in Karnataka on Nov. 13

Channapatna, Shiggaon and Sandur Constituencies

New Delhi, Oct. 16 (Agencies)- The Election Commission of India (ECI) has announced the dates for by-elections for the three Assembly constituencies in Karnataka – Channapatna, Shiggaon and Sandur. While the voting will be held on Nov. 13, the counting of votes will take place on Nov. 23.

By-elections to Channapatna will be held following the resignation of H.D. Kumaraswamy, who contested and won from Mandya Lok Sabha Constituency. Similarly, the by-elections to Shiggaon and Sandur Assembly Constituencies are being held following the resignations of MLAs Basavaraj Bommai and E. Tukaram respectively. The gazette notification will be issued on Oct .18. Last date for filing nomination is Oct. 25, scrutiny of nomination papers will be held on Oct. 28 and the last date for withdrawal of nominations is Oct. 30.

Following the announcement of the dates, political activities have picked up with ruling Congress and the Opposition in State — BJP and JD(S) — considering the upcoming by-polls as a prestige issue. Previously, out of the three Assembly Constituencies, the Congress, BJP and JD(S) had won one seat each. Now, with the JD(S) joining the National Democratic Alliance (NDA) headed by the BJP post Lok Sabha Polls, the NDA would be eyeing to win all three seats in the by-polls.

Among the three Constituencies, all eyes will be on Channapatna Assembly Constituency in Ramanagar district since it is expected to be a fight between Union Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy and Deputy Chief Minister D.K. Shivakumar (DKS).

While, DKS has expressed his desire to contest the by-poll, the NDA is yet to announce its candidate. It is believed that the JD(S) workers want party's State Youth President Nikhil Kumaraswamy to contest the polls while BJP MLC C.P. Yogeshwar, who has previously won from the Constituency, is keen on contesting. The parties are expected yet to announce their candidates in a day or two.

DKS unearthed MUDA scam records to oust Siddu: Reddy

'Official documents easily available to ruling party than Opposition; Kharge, Satish Jarkiholi also part of scheme'

Ballari, Oct. 16 (Agencies)- Adding his bit to the raging Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) land scam where Chief Minister Siddaramaiah is accused of wrongdoing, Gangawati MLA Gali Janardhana Reddy has said that it was Deputy Chief Minister D.K. Shivakumar (DKS) who extracted documents related to MUDA scam in a bid to oust Siddaramaiah from his position.

Janardan Reddy

However, he asserted that the BJP has made no such attempt to remove Siddaramaiah. Speaking at a Kuruba community event in Ballari yesterday, Reddy said that it is Congress members, not the BJP, who are trying to unseat Siddaramaiah.

"The BJP has not tried to remove Siddaramaiah. It was DKS who unearthed the MUDA scandal documents. Only those in power can access such documents; the Opposition cannot," Reddy said. He further remarked that it is widely known in Mysuru that the MUDA scandal came to light due to Shivakumar's efforts.

Reddy also claimed that Congress leaders knew that removing Siddaramaiah would destabilise the Government. "Shivakumar, along with AICC President Mallikarjun Kharge and Minister Satish Jarkiholi, who are vying for the Chief Minister's post, are behind the push to remove Siddaramaiah. But Siddaramaiah is fighting to retain his power," he said.

Reflecting on his own experiences, Reddy said, "During the BJP's rule, when I was a Minister, Siddaramaiah accused me of embezzling crores of rupees. False propaganda was spread to gain power. Siddaramaiah himself falsely accused me, saying if I was to be hit politically, he would become Chief Minister. Now, he's the one facing trouble."

"Congress leaders are plotting to undermine Siddaramaiah. Shivakumar is trying to completely sideline him. Even Shivakumar's mother has publicly expressed her desire for her son to become CM," he added, highlighting the efforts of DKS, Satish Jarkiholi, Kharge and others to weaken Siddaramaiah's position.

'Satyavanne Heluththene' play to be staged this month end'

This play comes after the successful staging of Cariappa's other plays — 'Tipu Nija Kanasugalu' and 'Karineera Veera.'

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Cariappa said that, he is the playwright and the director while his wife Anitha Cariappa is the costume designer. Ravi Muroor has scored the music and Subramanya Mysuru is in charge of acoustics.

Noting that the stage is shared by artistes playing the roles of great personalities like Mahatma Gandhi, Dr. B.R. The entire play 'Satyavanne Heluththene' focusses on the hearings in the Court of Conscience and the testimony of these great personalities on the truths in History.

Stating that, the play is of three-hour duration, Cariappa said that the roles revolve around the witness box in the Court of Conscience. Maintaining that he had studied as many as 43 books, including Jawaharlal Nehru's 'The Discovery of India,' before scripting the play, he said he was very hopeful that the play will see success just like his two other plays. This play is a unique experiment in the history of theatre, he claimed.

NICE Road towards Mysuru to be revived: Dy.CM

D.K. Shivakumar moots bringing back Bengaluru-Mysuru Infrastructure Corridor Project for outward development

Shivakumar

Bengaluru, Oct. 16 (Agencies)- In a significant move to further streamline travel between Mysuru and Bengaluru, Deputy Chief Minister D.K. Shivakumar has proposed reviving the long-stalled Bengaluru-Mysuru Infrastructure Corridor (BMIC) Project, promoted by Nandi Infrastructure Corridor Enterprises (NICE).

The project, which was initiated years ago, stalled amid controversies over excess land acquisition. Only the Bengaluru-side of the project has been completed and Mysuru-side has been left untouched.

Speaking to reporters in Bengaluru yesterday, Dy.CM Shivakumar emphasised the need to revive the project for regional development and job creation in smaller towns between two cities.

Poorly designed Highway

"The new Bengaluru-Mysuru National Highway-275 has stifled local development as it is access-controlled. Travellers can't even stop for a coffee. Moreover, the highway is poorly designed, with no access to basic amenities like restrooms," he said.

Shivakumar highlighted that the NICE Road connecting Bengaluru and Mysuru would encourage the growth of townships in areas like Bidadi, Ramanagara and Mandya, fostering outward development.

"People from these regions wouldn't have to flock to Bengaluru for jobs. The six-lane road would drive growth in Vokkaliga heartlands of Bengaluru Rural and Mandya," he added.

He noted that the original BMIC plan included creating townships along the corridor, which would have spurred job creation. "Now, people working in Bidadi are forced to stay in Bengaluru. We need to develop satellite towns. While I don't know if our government will pursue this, the project remains relevant despite the completion of National Highway-275. If I take this up, I'll ensure its swift completion," Shivakumar assured.

Blames Gowda family

Taking a jab at former Prime Minister H.D. Deve Gowda, he accused the Gowda family of derailing the NICE Project due to their landholdings in Bidadi and over 400 acres in Devagiri.

"They blackmailed officials. Everyone was scared. If the Deve Gowda family hadn't opposed it, Ramanagara, Channapatna, Kanakapura, Malavalli and Mandur would have thrived," he said.

He claimed that the BMIC Project was shelved to protect Gowda family's interests, leading to construction of access-controlled Bengaluru-Mysuru Highway. "If NICE acquired excess land, it's due to errors by our officials. We must respect the framework agreement, or they'll take us to Court," he added.

Arkavathy Layout Row

Complaint to Governor against CM, ex-BDA Commissioner

Bengaluru, Oct. 16 (Agencies)- A fresh complaint has been lodged against Chief Minister Siddaramaiah with Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot, this time by residents of Arkavathy Layout.

Site owners Shivalingappa, Venkatkrishnappa and Ramachandraiah Rajashekhar have accused the Chief Minister, former Bangalore Development Authority (BDA) Commissioner T. Shyam Bhat and other officials of abusing their power.

The complaint alleges that the officials' misuse of authority has caused significant problems for Arkavathy Layout allottees, many of whom are still struggling to take possession of their sites.

The BDA developed Arkavathy Layout on roughly 800 acres, incorporating 16 villages, including Thanisandra, Sampigehalli, Jakkur and K. Narayanapura. Over one lakh people applied for plots, with 20,000 chosen as beneficiaries.

The BDA executed registration-cum-sale deeds with 12,000 allottees. However, despite being registered, many allottees cannot access their sites due to alleged irregularities and encroachments, prompting them to file a complaint with the Governor.

Siddaramaiah issued 're-do' final notification

In 2004, the BDA had called for applications for plots in Arkavathy Layout. By 2006, hundreds were allotted plots, with payments of Rs. 2.5 lakh for 30x40 sites and Rs. 4.5 lakh for 40x60 sites. The registration-cum-sale deed restricts the sale of BDA sites for at least ten years.

During Chief Minister Siddaramaiah's first term in 2014, the Arkavathy Layout allotments were withdrawn. However, allottees had been paying property taxes since 2006.

The BDA had developed the layout after acquiring land from farmers and compensating them, yet site allottees are still unable to access their plots.

Since the withdrawal in 2014, the registered tenant allotments have been cancelled, but the land acquired from farmers has not been returned.

The complaint further states that allottees are being told there are no available sites in Arkavathy Layout and are being directed to Kempegowda Layout instead. Encroachments by land grabbers have exacerbated the situation, leaving rightful beneficiaries in limbo, according to the complaint.

20 months after Mysuru-Bengaluru Highway opens…

Retaining wall slants, raising safety concerns

Mandya, Oct. 16 (MR&BCT)- A section of the retaining wall on the Rs. 10,000 crore Mysuru-Bengaluru Highway, inaugurated just 20 months ago, has bent near Hale Boodanoor village in Mandya taluk, sparking serious concerns about the quality of construction.

The wall, part of a prestigious Central Government road project, has visibly slanted, raising questions about the durability of the work.

Local residents allege that the contractor rushed the completion of a 4-km stretch in March 2023 ahead of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's inauguration, compromising the quality of construction.

Shivanna, a resident of Boodanoor, said that despite repeated warnings from the community about the weakening retaining wall, no timely corrective action was taken. An earlier accident had led authorities to install iron rods and patch gaps with concrete, but those fixes have proven inadequate.

The National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) is now under fire for its failure to address the issue sooner. Locals have filed official complaints, demanding urgent repairs. NHAI workers are currently using cranes to straighten the slanted wall, filling gaps with cement and reinforcing cracks in the slabs to strengthen the structure.

With visible signs of structural weakness, locals are calling for a comprehensive investigation into the quality of the construction and immediate measures to ensure the safety of the Highway for commuters.

WORD OF THE DAY

Taciturn

Pronunciation: TASS-uh-tern (adjective).
Meaning: Taciturn is a formal word that describes someone who tends to be quiet or who tends to speak infrequently.
Origin: Even if you consider yourself a person of few words, taciturn is a good one to keep in your pocket, if for no other reason than it's an efficient way to describe your own particular deportment. While ramblers ramble and babblers babble, the taciturn among us turn things down a notch, preferring to keep mum rather than add their voices to the verbal hubbub. Taciturn traces back ultimately to the Latin verb tacēre, meaning "to be silent." While English users were quicker to adopt other tacēre descendants such as the adjective tacit ("expressed without words" or "implied") in the 1600s and even the noun taciturnity in the 1400s, taciturn wasn't on anyone's lips until the 1700s.
Example: "Joan Didion looks straight at camera, with her fist curled in front of her mouth — as if to indicate it is through her hands that taciturn thinker speaks." —Evelyn McDonnell, The World According to Joan Didion, 2023.

THE ODD WORD

Tabescent

Wasting; shrivelling.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Take umbrage

Meaning: To be displeased or offended by the actions of others.
Origin: There doesn't seem to be much we can do with umbrage other than to take it, that is, become displeased — the word is no longer used in any other context.
Step back to the 15th century and umbrage didn't mean displeasure. The word was inherited into English from the Latin 'umbra', meaning shade. Umbrage came to be used in English to mean shade or shadow, or the foliage of trees which cause shadows; for example, this piece from John Lydgate's 1426 translation of De Guileville's Pilgrimage of the life of man: ...my vysage whiche is clowded with vmbrage. 'Taking umbrage', that is, sitting under a shady tree, had then no negative associations, as is made clear in Sir Thomas Elyot's The image of gouernance, 1540: The sayd trees gaue a commodyous and plesant vmbrage.
Over time, the figurative use of umbrage to mean displeasure evolved, probably from the simple association of darkness with gloomy thoughts. In that meaning, umbrage was first said to be given rather than taken, as this example from Sir Nathaniel Brent's 1620 translation of the Historie of the council of Trent shows: He... therefore besought them to take away all those words that might give him any Vmbrage.
